Elgin Middlesex Oxford Workforce Planning and Development Board awarded $96,100 Ontario Trillium Foundation grant for Local Immigration Partnerships TV Series

NEWS

Deb Matthews, MPP for London North Centre will be announcing that the Elgin Middlesex Oxford Workforce Planning and Development Board received a $96,100.00 grant from the Ontario Trillium Foundation. The Elgin Middlesex Oxford Workforce Planning and Development Board is partnering with the Local Immigration Partnerships in Elgin/St. Thomas, London/Middlesex and Oxford as well as Rogers TV in London, Middlesex, St. Thomas and Woodstock to create a TV series. This series will highlight services available for immigrants, share success stories and also highlight a cooking segment which will feature recipes from different cultures.

"I'm delighted that our government is supporting a TV series that will help newcomers learn about what supports and services are available in our community and that will promote community engagement and cultural diversity." - Deb Matthews MPP, London North Centre
